

People on the move

Yale Bogen

Daniel Stermer

DSI Consultants Take Part in Turnaround Management Association Panel

Two consultants from the Miami office of Development Specialists, Inc. (DSI) recently took part in a panel discussion on government budgets hosted by the Turnaround Management Association- Florida Chapter.

Yale S. Bogen of DSI moderated the program that featured several elected officials from South Florida including DSIs Daniel Stermer who also serves as the Mayor of the City of Weston. He was joined on the dais by Frank Caplan, Mayor of Key Biscayne; Martin David Kiar, Broward County Commissioner; and Jim Waldman, Florida State Representative from District 96. Each talked about the challenges of trying to maintain high standards during the budgeting process at a time of increased costs and falling revenues. The event was held Wednesday, May 15 at the Bankers Club in Miami.

Development Specialists, Inc. (DSI):

DSI is a leading provider of management consulting and financial advisory services, including turnaround consulting, fiduciary roles, financial restructure, litigation support, wind-down oversight and forensic accounting services. Clients include business owners, corporate boards of directors, financial services institutions, secured lenders, bondholders, unsecured creditors and creditor committees. For more than 30 years, DSI has been guided by a single objective: Maximizing value for all stakeholders. With its highly skilled and diverse team of professionals, offices throughout the United States and in Europe, and an unparalleled range of experience, DSI not only achieves that objective, but has also built a solid reputation as an industry leader. For more go to www.dsi.biz.